Circuit Court.

Judge R. L. Stout reconvened Circuit Court yesterday morning, and after reading of the orders by the Clerk and motion hour, he immediately called the case of Sam Jett vs. James Hargis Alex. Hargis, etc. This case is a $10,000 damage suit which was transferred from the Clark Circuit Court to Bourbon Circuit Court. It is alleged by Jett that an indictment was found against him in the Breathitt Circuit Court for arson. He was cleared of the charge, and that the Hargises, with malicious intent, caused the grand jury to find said indictment to injure his character, and he asks for $10,000 damages.

Jouett, Bird & Jouett, of Winchester and T. E. Moore, Jr., of this city, represent the plaintiff, and Judge J. C. J. Bach, of Jackson, E. M. Dickson, Judge Denis Dundon and C. M. Thomas, of this city, represent the defendants.

That it will be a bitterly contested suit there is little doubt, as at the very start the attorneys began a wrangle about an affidavit that had been filed by the plaintiff. The defense objected to the filing, but after the court ruled to suppress the affidavit, the objection was withdrawn, as it looked as if the case would be continued and the Hargises seem anxious for a trial at this term of Court.

The next question raised by the plaintiff's attorneys was the absence of witness, C. J. Bronston. The defense theagreed to go to Lexington yesterday afternoon with the attorneys of the plaintiff and take Col. Bronston's deposition, and left for that city on the 3 o'clock car. Mr. Bronston is quite sick.

The selection of the jury will begin this morning and the fight will be on in earnest. There are a large number of witnesses present from a distance.

Grand Jury's Report.

The grand jury completed their labors late Thursday evening and submitted its final report to Judge Stout. A number of indictments for minor offenses were filed. Albert Rice, keeper of county infirmary, and Geo. W. Judy, jailer, were highly complimented by the jury as being efficient officers. One of the closing paragraphs of the report was as follows: "Our attention has been called by a petition signed by a number of the business men of Paris, Kentucky, to the daily violation of the agreement, by which the Blue Grass Traction Company secured its right of way and franchise, for cars to run to the end of its track on Bank Row, and we hereby recommend that the County Attorney shall take such steps as are necessary to compel said company to run its cars to the end of its track at said place; and we also recommend for the County Attorney to take the necessary steps to compel the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company to furnish a toilet in connection with the gentlemen's waiting room at the passenger depot."

Bourbon Fiscal Court.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court had its regular monthly meeting Saturday. Judge Denis Dundon presided with a full board of magistrates present.

An order was made annulling an order of several months ago, whereby two deputy turnpike supervisors were appointed. This throws out of office C. W. Gilkey, of North Middletown and Ed. Speakes, of Ruddies Mills.

The report of Turnpike Supervisor Redmon was read and accepted by the Court. The report embraced accounts for work on turnpikes to the amount of $2,175.57. An appropriation of $1,400 was allowed the supervisor for the month of December.

An appropriation of $7,500 for the court house bond and interest fund was made to pay the installment of court house bonds due January 1, 1907, and a further appropriation from the same fund of $2,700 to meet interest charges due on the same date was made.

The following farmers were allowed claims for the loss of sheep by dogs and the amounts certified to the Auditor of Public Accounts. A. P. Adair, $56; B. A. Batterton, $15; John Wadford, $7. Accounts to the amount of $947.71 were allowed. Turnpike Supervisor Claude Redmon filed his report for November which was ordered of record.
